

A NEW APPROACH TO WEDDING PLANNING

THE RULE of 3

The rule of three is a principle that suggests that a trio of events or characters is more effective than other numbers – Wikipedia.com

The Rule of BANQUETING

Initial contact, quotes and orchestration of wedding

The Rule of SUBSTANCE

Styling of venues and preparing of food and beverages

The Rule of WELLNESS

Revitalizing of senses, relaxation
and opulent pampering

Kilima Private Game Reserve and Spa is proud to present The Rule of Three as a unique and successful approach to plan and execute the perfect wedding.

The Rule of Three defines that three experts presiding over their discerning dominions, nevertheless in perfect harmony with each other, guarantees your dream wedding day.

We are situated in Limpopo Province, along the Mulati Riverbed and surrounded by the majestic Murchison Mountains. It boasts an abundance of wildlife, grasslands and mountain forests, making it the perfect venue for couples who want to embrace the beauty of the bushveld as a breath-taking backdrop to their wedding day.

We are prepared for any weather and can confidently state that we've got you covered – be it from the harsh African sun, or the temperamental savanna rain. We highly recommend our picturesque Star Gazing Deck which serves as a beautiful and impressive reception venue, comfortably accommodating up to 300 guests.

Rule of Banqueting: Upon first contact with us, Michelle Oosthuysen will talk you through your hearts desires to ultimately calculate and present you with a no-hidden-costs-quote. Michelle will also do the planning of the ceremony and reception set-up.

Rule of Substance: Our general manager, Renhard Oosthuysen will make sure that our chef prepare your gourmet food as per your individual requests, ensuring your family and friends enjoy an artfully arranged, delicious meal with you.

Rule of Wellness: A luxurious spa, with all the bubbles and bouquets for the bride and her entourage, included on the wedding day? Indeed! Our executive spa manager, Richard Pretorius, is a registered healthcare professional who will ensure you are thoroughly pampered and prepared on the big day.

SPOILT FOR CHOICE

WEDDING THEMES

Michelle will do the planning of the reception set-up. We have 5 Themes to choose from to form the base of your unique wedding day. These can be used as-is, or you're welcome to remove or add elements as you wish.

CLASSIC WEDDING

Soft hues of ivory, dusty pink or mint green accompanies gold or silver cutlery and crockery on a beautiful lace overlay. Add bouquets of romantic flowers, chandeliers of crystals and lots of candles and the Classic Theme is set to take your breath away.

MODERN WEDDING

Think clean lines, geometric shapes and minimal design. Utilize sleek chairs, a cool structural backdrop with glass, steel, wood and earth mixed into an ultra-modern look. Bold pops of color and surprisingly effortless design elements is what the Modern Theme is all about.

RUSTIC WEDDING

String lights, mason jars, twine, rough fabrics, a touch of lace and all things wood contribute to the simple and homey vibe of this theme. If you're looking for a more casual feeling with the potential to turn into a crazy barn party, this is the setting for you.

PREPPY WEDDING

Bright pinks, greens and navy blues are the name of the preppy game, which can also go hand-in-hand with nautical or southern weddings. A preppy theme allows you to blend formality with fun through bold patterns, tasteful bows, dainty fonts and cheery flowers.

AFRICAN CHIC WEDDING

Combining lush greenery and bright sunset colors with bold textures makes the African Chic theme beautiful and memorable. Adding gold touches will take the whole affair to a different level and it's your choice to add animal print elements, or not.
